English Language Arts
Primary 6

Home Dictation #2

The Joy of Helping Others

Being responsible is important because it helps us grow and help others. Even when a task is time-consuming, we can stay calm and do our best. When we plan our time, we are less likely to bite off more than we can chew. Taking on responsibility can be a blessing in disguise and a life-enhancing experience.

Common mistake: The title must be capitalized.