English Language Arts

Primary 6/ _____

Name:_____

Date: _____

Compound Sentences

A. Directions: Combine each pair of sentences to create one compound sentence using a relevant conjunction.

1. Emma wanted to join the school club. She was nervous about meeting new students.

   (but)

Emma wanted to join the school club, but she was nervous about meeting new students.

2. We can finish the project today. We can continue working on it tomorrow. (or)

We can finish the project today, or we can continue working on it tomorrow.

3. The rain stopped. The children went outside to play.

The rain stopped, so the children went outside to play.

The rain stopped, and the children went outside to play.

The rain stopped; the children went outside to play.

4. Daniel packed his lunch. He remembered to bring a bottle of water.

Daniel packed his lunch, and he remembered to bring a bottle of water.

5. The instructions looked simple. The activity was harder than we expected.

The instructions looked simple, yet the activity was harder than we expected.

The instructions looked simple, but the activity was harder than we expected.

6. Sarah forgot her umbrella. She got completely wet on her way home.

Sarah forgot her umbrella, so she got completely wet on her way home.

7. The library was closing soon. We decided to borrow our books quickly.

The library was closing soon, so we decided to borrow our books quickly.

The library was closing soon; we decided to borrow our books quickly.

8. You can read the novel tonight. You can finish it during the weekend.

You can read the novel tonight, or you can finish it during the weekend.

B. Directions: Fix the mistakes in the following sentences.

1. I wanted to go swimming, or the pool was closed.

I wanted to go swimming, but the pool was closed.

2. Emma finished her homework, but she packed her schoolbag.

Emma finished her homework, and she packed her schoolbag.

3. We can take the bus, so we can walk to school.

We can take the bus, or we can walk to school.

4. The weather was cold, and we wore our jackets.

The weather was cold, so we wore our jackets.

5. Jack practiced every day, or he improved his basketball skills.

Jack practiced every day, so we improved his basketball skills.

6. The library was closing soon but we decided to borrow our books quickly.

The library was closing soon, so we decided to borrow our books quickly.

7. Sarah was tired, so she continued reading her book.

Sarah was tired, but she continued reading her book.

Sarah was tired, yet she continued reading her book.

8. You can bring a notebook, yet you can bring a tablet.

You can bring a notebook, or you can bring a tablet.