Home Dictation #1

From Soil to Plate

Many of the foods we enjoy begin their journey in the soil. Farmers roll up their sleeves and work carefully to grow healthy crops. The food is then packed and sent near and far to different stores. At last, it finds its way to our plates.